CONSTRUCTION LITIGATION FIRM LAX & STEVENS ELEVATES MICHELLE CARPENTER TO ASSOCIATE

LOS ANGELES – Lax & Stevens, a full service construction law firm, has announced that Michelle Carpenter is now an associate with the firm upon being admitted to the California State Bar earlier this month. Ms. Carpenter joined Lax & Stevens in July 2004 as a paralegal and litigation manager. She is experienced in various aspects of litigation from inception through trial, and has served as “second chair” in bench and jury trials where she managed exhibits, scheduling of witnesses and preparation of pre-trial documents.

“We are proud of Michelle’s achievement and continued growth at the firm,” said Paul Lax, Managing Partner of Lax & Stevens. “Her thorough understanding of our work and objectives will enhance our ability to represent clients.”

Ms. Carpenter received her Juris Doctor from California Southern Law School and her Bachelor’s in Criminal Justice from California State University, San Bernardino. She is a member of the Los Angeles County Bar Association.
